PREFACE

25X1

This report contains the results of a re-examination of Chinese Communist ground forces installations covered on [REDACTED]

25X1

[REDACTED] The purpose of this re-examination is to identify and report vehicles and equipment observed in the installations. This type of information was not always provided in NPIC Mission Coverage Indexes prior to [REDACTED]

The installations covered in this report are listed in alphabetical order followed by the successive mission readouts of military vehicles and equipment.

Only those installations containing visible military vehicles or equipment plus all other installations containing a tank/assault gun storage and maintenance facility are covered in this report. An alphabetical listing of all of the installations found to contain a tank/assault gun storage and maintenance facility is provided on pages 51 and 52.

The installations are referenced in this report by the May 1965 Bombing Encyclopedia name and number followed by the general location and coordinates. All installations not found in the Bombing Encyclopedia are listed under the name of the nearest town as "barracks area."
